

Reading and Writing: Using Learning Ally and Co:Writer

Date: October 6, 2017

Program Description

In this webinar, we will have a conversation with RSU 63 Director of Special Services, Jesse Gauthier discussing the solutions he and his colleagues have used to meet the needs of students struggling with reading and writing.

Learning Ally

- Fee-based resource. Contact Learning Ally to get a quote for your district.
- Over 80,000 books and materials.
- Uses “human-narrated” audio.
- K-12 books including popular fiction, classic literature, textbooks, test prep and study aids.
- Listen on mainstream devices using accessible technology with page-level navigation, text highlighting and speed adjustments.
- Learningally.org

Co:Writer

- Gives students access to the powerful word prediction.
- Chromebooks, iPads, and Mac/Windows desktops.
- Over 4 million Topic Dictionaries.
- Built-in speech recognition in Google Chrome.
- Privacy-safe data collection.
- Integrates across Google, iPad, and Desktop.
- Don Johnston product - donjohnston.com/cowriter/

Presenters

Jesse Gauthier, Director of Special Services, RSU 63
John Brandt, Training Coordinator, Maine AEM Program

For more information

Please visit the Maine AEM Program website for more information and resources

maine-aem.org

Contact

John Brandt - Jbrandt@mainecite.org